

SFK Fund Raising Campaign

Primarily conceived in response to the adverse impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the scholars' socio-economic situation and mental health, the Fundraising Campaign is an initiative of the foundation to generate funds basically for the following purposes:

1. Educational and Health Needs Fund —Aims to fund the school supplies, food allowance, and mental health and wellness allowance of the SFK scholars.
2. Supplemental Support for Scholars - This campaign aims to provide supplementary support to Scholars-in-need

2.1 Board Review and Licensure Exam Support —This aims to help scholars in their board review needs (e.g. dormitory fees, board review fees) and other licensure examination fees.

2.2 Support for Scholars-in-need—This aims to support scholars who are in distress and may need temporary shelter and food due to calamitous events such as pandemic, flooding, house fire, and others.
